This biological man was allowed to join the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority at the University of Wyoming.

6 sorority sisters filed a lawsuit saying that he repeatedly sexually harassed them and exposed himself while living in the sorority house.

Today a district judge dismissed the girls lawsuit saying that it is not up to the court to define a 'woman.'

The man believes he is a VICTIM and recently appeared in a local Wyoming newspaper being celebrated for 'making history as the first openly transgender woman to join a Wyoming sorority.'

He told the local newspaper:

"There does come a price tag to being a first, and it comes with people in our current political situation that are detractors that do not want that."

Invading women-only spaces isn't respectable. Full stop.

Don't they decide who gets in? Sounds like they made this nest and will now sleep in it. Hope the virtue signaling was worth it.

They could always leave, but they won't do that

I would immediately drop out of the sorority and sue everyone of the local chapter advisors and Kappa headquarters. I was a Kappa at Alabama and we would have none of this. The local advisors had a huge hand in allowing this.

 Every one of these girls should go Inactive immediately. I would love to see how RUSH goes if he's the only Kappa there. The other chapters should stop sending dues to National until the policy changes back to exclusively female. Does the Divine Nine have this issue?

Disband the whole sorority. Or change the rules that everyone must be fully clothed all the time in the sorority house. Or change the charter to disallow anyone who has a penis.

Get creative and save the sorority. Even if you must do it temporarily.

 Why don't the women just simply give the P O S a good old fashioned blanket party and keep giving them until he decides to leave? Questions may be asked, but what can they do if nobody saw anything.
